REPORT ON An Auction of the property of the deceased Chen Chi Mei. or of some other members of the Revolutionary Party.

Made by D.S.I.Brewster. Forwarded by Chief Detective Inspector.

Sir,

An auction as above, was held in the French Town Central Police Station compound this afternoon. The articles sold included four kongs of damaged bomb cases (part or the whole of which may have been seized by the French Police from time to time). Sold to Ah Kung (阿根), 355 Tsipoo Road.

4 boxes of khaki masks.

1 basket of India rubber bags.

These masks are apparently made to be worn as respirators when assailed by poision gas. Bought by Yui Da (餘大), 620 Peking Road.

Five cases of glass jars encased in perforated tin, about seven inches high. These are apparently for holding a liquid which would generate poison gas when broken and exposed to the air. Bought by Ah Kung (阿根), and Yui Da (餘大) as above.

Your obedient servant,

W B Newton

Detective Sub-Inspector.

Chief Detective Inspector.
